Tokyo has numerous business centers where the headquarters of many domestic and international enterprises are found. Each with its respective color, as one area faces renewal, other areas go on functioning to ensure that the economic vitality of Tokyo never stops. Their seamless functions support the growth of Tokyo.

Development periods of major Tokyo business areas

- 1950s-1960s: Otemachi-Marunouchi-Yurakucho
- 1970s: Shinjuku
- 1980s: Shinagawa
- 1990s-2000s: Shibuya
- 2010s-2020s: Shinagawa

---

Shinjuku
- Located near Haneda Airport, developments are underway to turn the area into a center of international exchange.

Shibuya
- The dynamic center of culture is also attracting IT ventures.

Shinagawa
- This dynamic center is also attracting various businesses.

---

Centers of Tokyo’s economic activities
- Recent years have seen growing diversification of business centers with the addition of the Waterfront City, Toranomon, and Shinagawa areas to the traditional financial districts from Kabutocho to Otemachi.

---

Tokyo One-Stop Business Establishment Center
- Assists foreign companies and startups with the necessary administrative procedures for establishing a business. Opened in April 2015.