Example of Selections

Feijao black beans and TOKYO X brand pork stew with steamed rice

Feijoada is a traditional Brazilian black bean and pork stew. The delicious rich flavor characteristic of TOKYO X pork infuses the black beans to create a stew that perfectly complements rice topped with coriander.

Chinese fish sandwich (slider)

Crisp fried cod caught in the cold waters off of Alaska paired with fresh vegetables grown in Tokyo is placed on a fluffy Chinese steamed bun, a dimsum classic, to create a slider sandwich that fuses Chinese and American cuisine. Sweet chili sauce completes this tasty slider.

Menu items are subject to change due to factors such as ingredient availability.

○ Selections that do not contain pork or alcohol are also available.
